Workers Participation in Public Sector Unite

1042. DR. MOHD. HASHIM KIDWAI: Will 'be Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) the number of public sector units which have implemented the scheme for workers' participation in management till Tune, 1987:

(b) by when the remaining public sector units will implement this scheme; and

(c) what action Government propose to ta'Ke against those public sector units which have not implemented this scheme?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P A. SANOMAV (a) As per available information, 100 public sector enternrises have implemented the Scheme of Employees Participation in Management at the shop floor and plant levels

(b) and (c) Ministry of Labour have set up a Tripartite Committee consisting of representatives of some of the Ministries, public sector undertakings|state Governments and workers organisations to monitor the Scheme and to review its progress from time to time.

The Tripartite Committee also discusses the strategy required lo be adopted for implementation of the Scheme by the pub lie sector units. In a Scheme like this it is not possible to lay down a time limit wilhin which the Scheme could be implemented. The public sector units have to be motivated and informed of the advantages of such a Scheme. Since the Scheme is voluntary, no action can be taken against the public sector enterprises who have not implemented the Scheme.
